INTERIM ORDER

Having regard to the submissions of the parties, the Board orders:

- i) that the Union advise the College as to the productions it desires by Monday, February 4th, 2002.
- ii) the College will respond to the Union's request by Monday, February 25th, 2002.
- iii) If there is no dispute between the parties as to the productions, the Union will provide particulars to the College, respecting the matter, by Thursday, March 28th, 2002.
- iv) If there is a dispute between the parties then the matter will be dealt with by this Board at a hearing, or by way of written submissions if both parties agree.
- v) If there is to be a hearing or the parties are to make written submissions with respect to the issue of productions then all preliminary matters shall be dealt with at the same time.
- vi) If there is to be a hearing, the Board, after consulting with the parties, will fix a date for the hearing. In the event that there are written submissions, if the parties cannot agree as to the times for written submissions, the Board will also fix those dates.
